Life Member of N. Y. A. C. Writes About Coming Election. To the Editor of The New-York Tribune. Sir: Evidently the press agent of one of the tickets put up at the New York Athletic Club got the ear of your sporting editor yesterday and induced him to insert in a prominent place on your sporting page the fact that there was a fight on in the New York Athletic Club and the statement (not the fact) that his ticket, headed by James G. Joe Tinker Deposed as Manager of the Reds

Wanted to Usurp All Authority, and Directors of Cincinnati Club Said "Nay."

NO SUCCESSOR NAMED AS YET

Question Will Be Considered at the Proper Time According to August Herrmann.

Cincinnati, Nov. 25.-It was officially announced by the board of directors of the Cincinnati Baseball Club late to-day that Joe Tinker, manager of the team last season, had been deposed.

The official statement follows: The officers and directors of the Cininnati Exhibition Company desire to announce that they could not come to a satisfactory agreement with Mr. Tinker to act as playing manager for the Cincinnati team next year.

"The question involved did not pertain to salary. Mr. Tinker seemed to believe that he was entitled, if he again assume the position as playing manager of the Reds, to usurp all the authority vested by the stockholders in the executive of ficers and the board of directors of the company. Under these conditions the directors decided not to re-engage Mr. Tinker as manager of the team for next

NEWARK MEADOWS ROAD NOW ONE OF BEST IN COUNTRY

Its Opening Will Be Celebrated by New Jersey Motorists in a Few Days.

SCHIMPF TO RESIGN OFFICE

Brooklyn Man Unable to Remain as Head of Contest Board-Mr. Ranney Back at Office.

New Jersey motorists intend to have a big time within the next two weeks with Ei Occidente. opening of the old plank road across the Jersey City. The thoroughfare is an up-to-date parkway, one of the best in the country, and to keep pace with it the joint committee of the Essex and Hudson County Board of Freeholders which exercises jurisdiction over it, at a recent meeting held Friday afternoon changed its name to the more pretentious title of Essex-Hudson Boulevard. Joseph H. Wood, of Newark, former resident of the Associated Automobile Clubs of New Jersey, says that the slogan of the motorists now will be "Com munipaw and Passic avenues next." The Communipaw avenue is on the Jersey City side and Passaic avenue is on the Newark side, and each serves as entrance to the new boulevard. If they were paved after the manner of the old road there would be a smooth stretch of readway from the centre of Newark to the Jersey City ferry. Deposed manager of the Cincinnati Reds.

The celebration over the new boulevard will be taken part in by the Essex and is intimated that the release of Fielder Hudson Board of Freeholders, The New Jones by the Chicago Americans may Jersey Automobile and Motor Club, the Newark Motor Club, of Newark, and other organizations.
